DETAILED ACTION

1. This application has been examined. Claims 1-5 are pending.

Specification

2. The claims are objected to because they include reference characters which are not enclosed within parentheses.
3. Reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description of the drawings and used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims should be enclosed within parentheses so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims. See MPEP § 608.01(m).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1-4 fail to recite elements and their interrelationships to define a “tire” air hose coupling including a liner and a spring biased check valve. With regard to method claim 5, the claim includes both method (for example, providing an insulation barrier) and apparatus limitations (for example, flow controlling means) and it is unclear exactly what assembly method steps are being recited ?

Art Unit: 3753

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-4, as presently understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Magowan, Jr. Magowan, Jr. shows a air hose coupling including a tube flared end 47 "...fixedly inserted forward from the standard threaded-end of coupling body of the check valve. A spring biased 51 biased check valve 23 is shown in Figure 2. Water condensate would be prevented from entering the conduit by the valve 23. A liner includes the flared end 47 and would act6 as a heat sink relative to the air/water condensate temperature.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 148 USPQ 459, that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

Art Unit: 3753

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or unobviousness.

10. Claim 5, as presently understood, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McGowan, Jr. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to assemble the "tire valve" coupling of McGowan, Jr. by the recited method steps.
